

VCCA Kicks Off New Year with New President and New Website

The Virginia Court Clerks' Association ("VCCA") held its 95th annual convention in Richmond on September 23rd – 25th. The convention of circuit court clerks elected the Honorable Linda S. Timmons (Orange County) as the President of the VCCA. Ms. Timmons commenced her duties as president on September 25th, 2005. The following individuals were elected as officers of the VCCA: W. Glenwood Lookabill – 1st Vice-President, Tina E. Sinnen – 2nd Vice-President, Larry Palmer – 3rd Vice-President, Gary M. Clemens – Secretary, Susan Gasperini – Treasurer, Gail Barb – Historian, and Wayne Cosby – Parliamentarian.

President Linda Timmons announced a very aggressive schedule of committee meetings as she addressed the convention of Circuit Court Clerks at the Jefferson Hotel on September 25th, 2005. A series of meetings for October 2005, including the LGOC Committee, the Executive Committee, the Staffing Standards Committee, the Career Development Committee and Legislative Committee, will commence on October 4th. For more details on the dates and locations of these various committees, please review the Virginia Court Clerks' Association website at www.vaclerks.org.

The new VCCA website has been launched and information regarding Circuit Court Clerks and the affairs of the VCCA are available at www.vaclerks.org. The website will be refreshed on a regular basis to provide current information and the status of key legislation.
